

CHARACTERS

(Cast of 10: 5 female, 4 male, 1 gender-neutral)

Alice Fleming (135 lines): A senior English major at Hudson Christian College; capable and dedicated, but sometimes unsure of herself (22 years old)

Eve Wescott (99 lines): A senior Biblical languages major at Hudson Christian College; kind, smart, and level-headed (22 years old)

Maryjane Krueger (61 lines): A senior history major at Hudson Christian College; youthful and artlessly brilliant (22 years old)

Sam Fleming (132 lines): Alice's loyal, lighthearted, outgoing younger brother (19 years old)

Gus Monroe (107 lines): Sam's close friend from military training camp, discerning and attentive to the needs of others, though sometimes coming across as bluff (23 years old)

Kenny Stark (71 lines): Sam and Gus's friend from training camp, insecure, proud, moody, and restless, from a broken family (21 years old)

Lt. Florence/Frederick Cole (63 lines): Signal Corps officer stationed at Arlington Hall, with a calm, commanding presence but a keen sense of humor just under the surface (30s)

Phoebe Nicholson (55 lines): Arlington Hall cryptanalyst, particularly experienced in breaking German ciphers; a somewhat stern leader, but for good reason (late 20s)

Rose Delaney (56 lines): Arlington Hall cryptanalyst, previously a schoolteacher; modest, wise, warm, and encouraging (26 years old)

Pvt. Peter Gibbs (28 lines): Optimistic, down-to-earth friend of Sam, Gus, and Kenny (mid 20s)
